But Love in the Afternoon rises above the others. I adored this book. After falling a bit in the fourth Hathaway book and relying on cliched physical encounters to drive the story, Lisa Kleypas finally came back to the thing that makes her books so enjoyable to me ... quirky and enjoyable characters and strong relationships that help one another rise above the trying circumstances of life.

Love in the Afternoon (Hathaways, Book 5): Lisa Kleypas

Love in the Afternoon is the fifth book in the very entertaining Hathaway series, but it stands alone very well. If you're a stickler, though, and want to read the series from the beginning, start with Mine Till Midnight (The Hathaways, Book 1) and keep reading from there.
