Principal photography is the phase of film production in which the bulk of the movie is filmed, with actors on set and cameras rolling, as distinct from pre-production and post-production.. Principal photography is typically the most expensive phase of film production, due to actor, director, and set crew salaries, as well as the costs of certain shots, props, and on-set special effects. Its ...

Photo By Flickr User: Thomas Leuthard Legality only scratches the surface. Unless you are selling your images, you do not legally need anyone's explicit permission to take a picture in a public space, I personally think it is somewhat ethically dubious to share photos of people you do not know without asking.

Do I need to get permission from the people in my photos
