The Age of Dualization - ORA - Oxford University Research

Abstract. Poverty, increased inequality, and social exclusion are back on the political agenda, not only as a consequence of the Great Recession of 2008, but also because of a seemingly structural trend towards increased inequality in advanced industrial societies that has persisted since the 1970s.

The Age of Dualization : The Changing Face of Inequality

In the final chapter the editors try to integrate the wide range of findings. They draw the main conclusion that the past two to three decades marked the "age of (amplified) dualization", whereas the extent and forms of dualisation is a matter of political choice. Thus, politics of dualisation are the driving force.
