The Duke Of Shadows (2008) About book: It's rare to read a book in this genre that understands the complexity and the history of India. I've read several books more recently that were set in exotic settings that had a lot of stereotypes and a lack of understanding for those settings and the characters therein.

Creatively and delightfully written, The Duke's Shadow is a charming story full of twists and turns, conflict and resolution. It is one of those books I found difficult to put down, a real page turner. Despite a limited number of minor typos, this is a wonderful story. The characters are fun and easy to get to know.
