Prince Keltor tro el Vallen is heir to the Kelderan throne and must put duty above all else. Social connections, especially those with love involved, are dangerous. So when the only female who ever treated him as a man instead of a prince comes storming back into his life, it takes everything Keltor has to keep his distance and resist the lively, straightforward woman.

I really enjoyed the third book in the Kelderan Runic Warriors series. The Heir focuses on Prince Keltor and his childhood love Azalyn. Separated over twenty years ago, united once again in less than happy circumstances. Worlds apart as Keltor is the heir to the throne and Azalyn is a commoner. Both Keltor and Azalyn are faced with difficult decisions.
