not be well received by God nor His people. The basis for this is 2 Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth." Moses in Numbers 12 is a good example of God's choosing leaders who are meek. 2.

We see the majesty of God displayed in creation. This Psalm was written by David. It begins with the words "O Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth." And, it ends with the same words, "O Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!" This is why I believe the theme of the Psalm is to praise the wonderful majesty and glory of God.

I expect most of us have a gut feeling about what God's majesty is. It has to do with God's strength and glory. Kings and queens are called "Your Majesty" in recognition of their sovereignty. So God's majesty may also be his authority. I suppose many might equate God's majesty with his greatness. All of these notions of majesty are wonderful.
